Agenda Item 4: Business arising from 2018 minutes

The items below were taken from the floor, discussed and were examined by the new committee and the following strategies had been instigated.

4.1 Student membership:

In an effort to encourage medical student membership, the Society has implemented a + one policy, whereby any member can bring a medical student along to clinical meeting free of charge.

4.2 Pharmaceutical company's sponsorship:

To increase revenue the Society has been approaching pharmaceutical companies to sponsor clinical meeting. This has been very successful and has established stronger links with this avenue of funding. The Society will endeavour to continue this arrangement in the future.

4.3 Website photo gallery was requested:

The Society's website now has a photo gallery, the society needs to get a little better at taking photos at clinical meetings through the year.

Agenda Item 12: New business

12.1 FNQRN scholarship

Far North Queensland Community & Practice Nurse Association (FNQ CAPNA) has closed and the remaining FNQ CAPNA financial members have discussed the option of donating their remaining funds (approximately $13,000) to the Sexual Health Society of Queensland for the purposes of establishing a scholarship supporting attendance at the annual Australasian Sexual Health and/or HIV conference for one (1) FNQ registered nurse per year. This agreement has been completed and signed off, see attached.

A similar application to the current conference scholarship and finalised and available on the website. A term deposit account has been set up with National Bank Australia and $13,756.65 has been deposited with a maturity date of 1st August 2020

12.2 Membership clinical meeting scholarship

The society has reviewed the clinical meeting scholarship dollar amount and felt that this should be increased to reflect the current cost of a return flight to far north Queensland. The society recommends that this should be increased from $250.00 to $500.00.

Moved by Mr Joseph Debattista

A vote was held from all members in attendance and found to be unanimous

Meeting Closed: 2.10pm
